

The Delta Kappa Gamma Society International

Alpha Sigma State

Epsilon Chapter

February 10, 2009

Dear Counselor/Scholarship Advisor:

An application for the Delta Kappa Gamma Society International, Epsilon Chapter Grant-in-aid is enclosed.

Last year Epsilon Chapter awarded two Grants-in-aid to area high school graduates. The awards usually amount to several hundred dollars, varying year to year, depending on available resources.

Epsilon Chapter is interested in the student who plans a career in education. We are looking at the academic achievement, activities, and long term goals for a career in education.

Please copy and distribute the enclosed application to interested students who meet the criteria of a potential outstanding educator. If your school district has a web site you may place the application on the web.

Interested students must complete the enclosed application along with (1) a current transcript, (2) SAT/ACT scores, (3) a short autobiography, not to exceed one page, and (4) two letters of recommendation , one from a present or former teacher of the applicant.

The application packet must be postmarked on or before Wednesday, April 15, 2009 to be considered.

Notification of awards will be made on or before May 22, 2009.

Thank you for publicizing our Grant-in-aid program and for helping your students to reach their goals. If you have any questions, please call 253-845-9733 or e-mail destat@q.com.

Sincerely,

M. Desta Taylor
